SAYS HEART OF CHINA IS WITH DR. SUN YAT SEN

Chang Chan, Formerly One of His Lieutenants, Talks at Pan-Pacific Luncheon

Dr. Sun Yat Sen, for many years a resident in Honolulu, and the founder of the Chinese republic, was the subject of a short speech made at the Pan-Pacific luncheon yesterday by Chang Chan.

"Dr. Sun would be the subject of many talks today," began Chang. "If it were not for the fact that many of his friends are afraid to talk of him. They are afraid that to express their real opinions of the great man would entangle them with some of their friends. But I am not afraid to talk of him, the man who worked and fought over and over again for liberalism in China, and for all that is open and progressive in Chinese government. Free speaking, free thinking, free acting, these were the things he stood for, and therefore I am glad to do the first one of these three things today."

"The story of Sun is the story of defeat and discouragement from the start. For 25 years he struggled and struggled against what we were all afraid would be insuperable difficulties.
When he went back to China from Honolulu the best friends he had said of him: 'He has gone to join the white devils! That is how many of the Chinese speak of the whites. And it merely goes to show what obstacles he had to fight against.
Yet for 25 years he gave up the surety of a great fortune and success and happiness in the world to fight for an idea. Today he is feeling over the world pursued by the hatred of the government of the country for which he has worked. But the heart of China goes with him in his fight.
One of his Lieutenants."

"I remember that after one of the numerous revolts which he headed had been crushed in southeast China, a revolt in which I had the proud distinction of being his lieutenant even in defeat, I said to him as we retreated with the broken fragments of our troops: 'Dr. Sun, this work is too big for us. We have only a few hands with which to raise money, direct men and organize operations.' He laid his hand on my shoulder as he answered: 'Chang, I may fall today and fall tomorrow. I may fall all my life and all of those who are working with me may fall, but what I stand for today, and have always stood for, is bound to win sooner or later.'" "I do not know what the man did who shook a great post every day as he passed it. And after years and years the post became so wobbly and loose that another man came and had the strength to lift the post clear out of the ground.

"That is what I am doing, loosening the very roots and foundations of this government of darkness and blind greed, and the time will come when a young man and a strong man shall take the post which I have loosened from the ground and place in the same spot a tree which will grow and which of itself will increase in unshakable strength, rooted deeper and deeper in right and justice and freedom."

"I have to stop," said Chang. "I have already taken much of your time, but the subject on which I speak is so big that I have rather to apologize for shortening my remarks than for taking your time. I am afraid that if I say any more I may forget discretion and say things in too loud a voice—things which you can't forget."

Yesterday's luncheon was the first of the "Independence day" luncheons being held by the Pan-Pacific Club this month and was to celebrate the beginning of China's freedom from Manchu domination.

HOW YOU MAY THROW AWAY YOUR GLASSES

The statement is made that thousands wear eyeglasses who do not really need them. If you are one of these unfortunates, then these glasses may be ruining your eyes instead of helping them. Thousands who wear these "windows" may prove for themselves that they can dispense with glasses if they will get the following prescription filled at once: Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Optina; fill a two-ounce bottle with warm water and drop in one Optina tablet.
With this harmless liquid solution baths the eyes two to four times daily and you are likely to be astonished at the results right from the start. Many who have been told that they have astigmatism, eye-strain, cataract, sore eyelids, weak eyes, conjunctivitis and other eye disorders, report wonderful benefits from the use of this prescription. Get this prescription filled and use it; you may so strengthen your eyes that glasses will not be necessary. Thousands who are blind or nearly so, or who wear glasses would never have required them if they had cared for their eyes in time.
Save your eyes before it is too late.
Do not become one of those victims of neglect. Eyeglasses are only like crutches and every few years they must be changed to fit the ever-increasing weakened condition, so better see if you can, like many others, get clear, healthy, strong magnetic eyes through the prescription here given.—Adv.

Kona Coffee and Hawaiian Pines To Philippines

Army Using Both Products in Increasing Quantity; Sheridan Takes Big Shipments

Hawaii's coffee is furnishing soldiers and officers of Uncle Sam's army in the Philippines with the "cup that starts the day right." When the transport Sheridan sails at noon Friday for Manila she will carry 54,900 pounds of Kona coffee to the quartermaster's warehouse of the Philippine Department at Manila.

All this coffee is used by the army.
It is shipped, according to Maj. D. B.
Case, assistant to Lieut. Col. James B.
Houston, quartermaster of the Hawaiian Department, in hermetically sealed tins, containing 25 pounds of coffee each. It is shipped in cases, two tins to a case, and is not affected by moisture or the tropical climate until opened for use.

In September there were shipped from the quartermaster's office here 95,000 pounds. Kona coffee shipments are now being made each month, so that every transport leaving here contains Hawaiian coffee for consumption in the Philippines.

Incidentally, the pineapple growing industry of the islands will be represented by a shipment of 3840 cases of Hawaiian canned pineapples, which are stored at the quartermaster's warehouse awaiting shipment to the Philippines on the Sheridan.

Pineapple shipments from here are becoming as regular on army transports as those of coffee. By shipping direct from Honolulu to Manila the army saves time and money on both products.

CUSTOMS BLANK PUT ON PARCEL SENT TO LIHUE

"Foreign Station" Stamp Affixed to Mailed Matter by New York House

More complaints pour into the Promotion Committee stating that firms throughout the United States insist upon calling Hawaii "foreign." This morning a big package arrived from Bellevue, N. Y., of New York, bearing 35 cents postage and stamped from one end of the package to the other was the phrase "Foreign Station."

A letter has come to the Promotion Committee from Lihue, which runs:
"Referring to the article in yesterday's Star-Bulletin regarding your objection to having Hawaii listed as a foreign country, it might interest you to know that per same mail a parcel was received from a large Ohio firm (manufacturers of the Columbia batteries), to which a customs declaration was attached; surely it is time the postal authorities were taught different. The Brown Shoe Company of St. Louis also affixed a 5-cent stamp to a recent letter, notwithstanding they send a regular traveling agent throughout this territory each year.
Yours very truly,

"H. S. BARCLAY,"
Director A. P. Taylor of the Promotion Committee is taking immediate action upon this matter and has already written to the postal officials at Washington, to the department head at Washington, and to the local postoffice.
The attempt will be made to impress upon the people of the states the one fact that Hawaii is not and never shall be anything but an integral part of the United States.
